

Guinea Pig Housing

Large Animal Housing

Allentown's plastic guinea pig caging system provides clean, comfortable, and quiet housing. Stainless steel rack is constructed with heliarc welded tubular frame and removable electropolished front panel.

Standard and Custom Guinea Pig Housing Solutions

Allentown's plastic guinea pig caging system provides clean, comfortable and quiet housing for your animals. With a ridged stainless steel frame and rugged plastic cage bases, the Allentown guinea pig system will stand the test of time and provide you with an affordable and reliable solution for your research needs.

Superior Fabrication Leads to Products That Last a Lifetime

For 50 years Allentown has been refining its design and manufacturing process to make certain Allentown housing units are the most durable and long lasting on the market today. From materials to craftsmanship... design to testing... delivery to field service... we stand behind the performance and durability of each and every Allentown Guinea Pig unit.

Features and Benefits

- Uni body design reduces noise from animal movement and rack transportation
- Heliarc welded tubular frame and removable electropolished front panel
- No tip drawer design allows cage to pull forward simplifying animal removal
- Injection molded Noryl plastic cage is washable up to 190°F and weighs less than 15 lbs.
- Plastic cage body resistant to alkaline and acid detergents
- Cages stack for ease of transport and compact storage
- Cages readily sanitized in tunnel or rack washer
- Removable stainless steel front panel and top grid cage covers
- 3" x 5" permanent cardholders on cage doors
- Food hopper
- 5" diameter stainless steel casters, two with brakes
- Stainless steel automatic watering
- Bottle watering systems